

SAYS SHE IS BILKED

Mrs. A. Slater Bought a Photograph Gallery

TO MAKE A MINT OF MONEY

It Turns Out That She Was Too Glib-tongued and Now Wants to Save Her House and Lot.

An injunction was issued yesterday against Frank E. LeClear, the hero of the home-coming incident of last winter, restraining him from selling a house and lot owned by Mrs. A. Slater, on which he holds a mortgage for $10,000. Mrs. Slater claims LeClear sold her a one-half interest in a photograph gallery, representing that it would pay her well. She now claims that the business was not what he represented it to be, and she is unable to pay her mortgage, which LeClear took as security for the purchase price of the gallery.

TO COLLECT A CLAIM.

Sued the Order of B'nai B'rith on a Bond.

The case of G. A. Wolf, administrator of the estate of Solomon Wolf, against Grand Rapids district lodge B'nai B'rith, is on trial in Judge Grove's court. It is claimed that, according to the by-laws of the order, no person over 45 years of age can take the insurance which the society gives to younger men. When the lodge was formed here it was found difficult to get enough men to join to get a charter. The age limit was therefore waived, and Mr. Wolf, it is claimed, took out some insurance under the condition that the age limit should be waived. When he died the society did not pay the insurance, and Mr. Wolf, as administrator, began suit to collect it. Mr. Hamberger, one of the grand officers of the society, is here looking after the case for the defense with M. M. Housman. The plaintiff is represented by Myron H. Walker and Mr. Wolf.

Eli Skipped Out.

Eli Landis was in court yesterday on complaint of his sister-in-law, Maggie Landis, who wishes Eli placed under bonds to keep the peace. He gave bonds for his appearance in the sum of $600. He will have a trial November 17. The sheriff who went to arrest Eli had some difficulty. The first time he called Eli saw him and skipped out the back way and escaped arrest. The next time the officer called he left his rig, drove a mile away and succeeded in capturing his man. Eli did not wish to come so he sat down and insisted that the officer must transport him to the carriage. After a tough wrestle the old man was landed in jail.

DIED FOR LOVE.

Poor Arle Ross Commits Suicide at the County House.

Arle Ross, for three years an inmate of the county house, committed suicide by taking a dose of morphine. The dose was taken Wednesday evening, but he did not die until about noon yesterday. Ross has been weak-minded for many years, and made one previous attempt to end his existence. For the past year he has been paid small wages to act as orderly at the new house, but as soon as he secured a little money he seemed to have no more sense than a child. He was told that he was wanted to get married and began making love to all the females in the house. Last winter he was arrested by the police in the city on account of his queer actions while on a temporary leave of absence. Keeper McArthur had not noticed that Arle was any more than usual. Wednesday night he found him in the hospital department very sick. He remained as such until he died at noon yesterday. Dr. Storch was called and did all that he could for the suffering patient, but he died at noon yesterday. He left a dozen or more letters to various persons and one to the public. In all of them he said he wished to die because he could not carry the one he loved. He said Mr. and Mrs. McArthur were very kind to him, but he wanted a home of his own. He also stated in several of his messages that he had $15,000 in the old country, $5,000 of which he directed should go to Lizzie Andrews, a 15-year-old girl in the home, with whom he appeared to be in love. He also left a letter to A. G. Andrews of Remondy, Indiana, father of Lizzie. He repeated his assertions that he loved Lizzie in this letter and said he had a fortune in a bank at Alkmaar, Holland, and that Lawyer Vaakman of that place knew all about it.

Arle Ross was formerly a type-setter on the Yankee Doodle, a weekly paper published in this city several years ago. He was 28 years old and had been in America about sixteen years.

AID FOR DEACONESSES.

Enjoyable Musical at Mrs. Berkey's. Two Workers Engaged.

The musical given last evening in the residence of Mrs. Charles H. Berkey, at Prospect and Fountain streets, for the benefit of the deaconesses workers was a pleasing success. The spacious rooms were crowded with an audience that contained some of the best musical talent in the city and the program was presented as published in THE HERALD yesterday morning. Mrs. W. J. Aldrich, superintendent of the new Aldrich memorial Deaconess' home, was present and was much pleased with the success of the evening's entertainment. Mrs. Aldrich has located in this city and will begin at once to collect subscriptions for the home building fund. She will visit outlying localities every Sunday. Next Sunday she will go to Otego and Trowbridge to make arrangements for the collection of subscriptions at those places. Mrs. Aldrich expects to begin the routine work of deaconesses in about two weeks with Miss Clara Nichols of Ionia and Miss Ella Van Schick of Albion under her supervision as practical workers. She expects to engage a temporary home for them this week with a private family. The work on the home at the corner of Lyon street and Antkield court is progressing nicely and Mrs. Aldrich expects to be located in it permanently by April 1 next. When completed the home will be dedicated with appropriate ceremonies.

BENEVOLENT PEDRO.

Successful and Enjoyable Party Given in Lockerby Hall.

Mrs. Edward Lowe, Mrs. T. Stewart White and Mrs. Enos Putman, composing the crockery committee of the U. B. A. home board, gave a progressive pedro last night in Lockerby hall to raise funds with which to get an additional supply of crockery. About 600 invitations were issued, and nearly half that number of persons were present. No stated admission fee was exacted, but the regulation price was understood to be 50 cents each. Many who received invitations sent their regrets at not being able to be present, at the same time including the 50 cents. There were thirty tables in use during the early part of the night, but at the close of the theatre the company was increased so that ten extra tables were required. The party included many of the well-known society people of the city, and the occasion was one of much enjoyment to the participants and a success to the purpose. Light refreshments were served to the members of the party. The receipts were estimated to be over $100.

DIED IN A SALOON.

John Paul Fell Dead in Webb's Pavilion at the Lake.

The circumstances of the death of John Paul at Reed's lake Wednesday afternoon were particularly sad. He had been drinking heavily for a day or two and five minutes before his death he was howling in the street until everybody in the village knew that he was on a spree. He went to Webb's pavilion in the rear of the Street Railroad company's pavilion and called for a drink. It was handed to him and as he raised it to his lips he choked and fell on the floor in a spasm. It is believed that he burst a blood vessel as he died in a few moments, before medical aid could be summoned. It is commonly talked at the lake that the proprietors of the place in which Mr. Paul died will be called upon to settle a suit for damages. Arrangements for the funeral have been made. The ceremony will be held in the house at 2 o'clock today.

PETITIONED THE BISHOP.

St. Mary's Parishioners Want Father Schmitt Returned.

A strenuous effort is being made by the parishioners of St. Mary's Catholic church on the west side to have Bishop Richter rescind his action removing the Rev. Father Schmitt from the pastorate of that church. Last evening the Young Men's society of St. Mary's church visited the bishop's residence in a body to see if they could not prevail on him to send Father Schmitt back to the west side. There were about fifty young men present and each of them exhausted all the arguments at his command to convince the bishop that Father Schmitt should take his old place. Bishop Richter heard their petition very kindly and talked the matter over with them. He has taken the matter under advisement and will give them an answer in a few days.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.
